

1. What do you see?

2. Imagine shading square grids in this way forever.

Then cutting out the shaded parts to form a new shape.

How big may the new shape become?

3. What math art can you create?

4. What does this represent?

